Innovation and Canadian Business Strategy

Long term strategy
- 80% of firms focus on product positioning
- 90% of high tech firms focus on positioning

Performance monitors
- Sales income growth
- Gross Margin
- Increased sales of new products

Business marketing practices
- 44.5% to 61% of all firms focus on existing practices
- Small and medium high tech firms focus more on new practices than large firms

Organisational innovation
- Large manufacturing firms are very innovative in Canada

Process innovation
- High tech firms averaged between 4.8 and 9.8 innovations in 2009
- Low tech firms averaged from 2.4 to 3.6

Services innovation
- Very low in Canada
- Wood & Paper industries 3.5 innovations in 2009

Goods innovation
- Transport, manufacturing firms and beverage manufacturing innovate more than other industries

Presented by Philippe Cloutier
Under the supervision of Dr. Ajax Persaud